

Branding material spring 2024 – For Brazil

Website.

Link to:

- Frontpage

<https://www.sdu.dk/en/forskning/forskningsenheder/samf/justsociety>

- Teaching site with information about the course for all students:

<https://www.sdu.dk/en/forskning/forskningsenheder/samf/justsociety/activities/teaching>

- Specific website for students from Brasilia:

<https://www.sdu.dk/en/forskning/forskningsenheder/samf/justsociety/activities/teaching/university-of-brasilia>

Registration site:

<https://www.conferencemanager.dk/justsocietyspring2024>

Attached is the e-mail confirmation.

Twitter:

Please see attached the tweet and the retweet to see how we will do it. These are from our previous advertisement of the course, and we will of course change to relevant videos as well as the logo, dates etc.

A link to registration will also be provided for these tweets.

Video (if wanted for SoMe or other)

Recommendation from a previous student <https://youtu.be/Xnd6D9BQDRQ>

Message for monitor or the like.

JUST SOCIETY: The Rule of Law and Equal Access to Welfare

Running again in 2024!

Deepen your understanding of challenges to equal access to welfare.

Deadline: March 3rd 2024.

Are you a student of either law or political science?

Then register for JUST SOCIETY interdisciplinary and comparative course that deepens your knowledge and understanding of the rule of law, rights and welfare policies globally.

You will investigate the conditions of (in)equal access to rights and welfare from comparative and interdisciplinary perspectives together with students from different countries and various disciplinary backgrounds.

The course will enable you to contribute actively to the advancement of just welfare states.

Read more on SDU JUST SOCIETY

Message for Blackboard & e-mail to alumni's

JUST SOCIETY: The Rule of Law and Equal Access to Welfare

Running again in 2024!

Deepen your understanding of challenges to equal access to welfare.

Deadline: March 3rd 2024.

JUST SOCIETY offers an interdisciplinary and comparative course that deepens your knowledge and understanding of the rule of law, rights and welfare policies globally.

You will investigate the conditions of (in)equal access to rights and welfare from comparative and interdisciplinary perspectives together with students from different countries and various disciplinary backgrounds such as law, political science, public administration, sociology and social work.

The course will enable you to contribute actively to the advancement of just welfare states.

Read more about the overall course here, and more specifically for students in Brazil here.

Before applying, make sure you fulfill the eligibility criteria and can participate in the onsite MANDATORY induction workshop on the 22-23 March.

Please register here.

Read more about JUST SOCIETY, and feel free to follow us on Twitter/X and LinkedIn.

